IMPACT STATEMENT

Beta Theta Pi's Fraternity Services Department is dedicated to supporting and training chapter officers and local chapter volunteers in order to promote the Mission, Vision and Core Values of Beta Theta Pi.

The main responsibilities of the Director of Fraternity Services are:

1. Support the overall efforts and initiatives of the Administrative Office.
2. Cultivate, recruit, and appoint chapter counselors for chapters within assigned portfolios, determined by the Fraternity Services Department leadership.
3. Support chapter leadership within assigned portfolios, determined by the Fraternity Services Department leadership.
4. Serve as the primary contact for potential/current volunteers and collegiate officers within a certain area of Beta's Broad Domain.
5. Assist in the creation and execution of constituent-centered support programs for the Fraternity.

OVERALL JOB RESPONSIBILITIES

Manage the development of and constituent relations for chapters and volunteers in an assigned portfolio of chapters within Beta's Broad Domain.

- Provide support for volunteers and collegiate officers, including but not limited to counsel, resource allocation, information sharing, training, etc. This will include, but is not limited to, individual coaching for chapter counselors and chapter presidents, group coaching calls for cohorts of volunteers, etc.
- Recruit, appoint, and train new volunteers as part of a comprehensive volunteer lifecycle, including the proactive identification of needs, rotation of roles, evaluation of volunteer performance, developing innovative solutions to fill vacancies, etc.
- Provide direct support to chapters and advisory teams in the absence of an appointed or available chapter counselor.
- Develop and foster relationships with constituencies critical to the success of chapters, including alumni associations, house corporations, and campus professionals. This will require the utilization of verbal and written communication during in-person and virtual interactions.
- Develop and implement effective remote work practices, including the successful management of travel logistics, resource allocation, project execution, etc.
- Develop and implement an effective chapter and constituent engagement schedule that includes, but is not limited to, chapter or campus visits, volunteer training workshops, conferences and retreats, etc.

- Collaborate with the Growth Department to ensure operational success of volunteers for new chapters, which is defined as a chapter established within the last five years.
- Collaborate with the Leadership & Education Department to develop and review all department operational policies and collegiate/volunteer resources (officer manuals, program examples, web resources, etc.).

Support the overall efforts and initiatives of the Administrative Office.

- Participate in departmental and office-wide meetings.
- Serve as a member of the Fraternity Services team and participate in Fraternity Services meetings, retreats and strategic planning as required or requested.
- Serve as a facilitator or event manager for assigned General Fraternity leadership programs.
- Work with other departments (Growth, Leadership and Education, Foundation, Communication, Chapter Services, etc.) to advance and implement the strategic direction of the Fraternity.
